

Local Government in Norfolk is facing the biggest shake up in 50 years

The Government is proposing:

- Unitary authorities replace District & County councils in Norfolk and Suffolk
- Powers moved from local to regional levels
- Increase in council tax for Breckland residents

Breckland Council is writing a proposal to Government to make sure future service delivery is directly informed by local residents and businesses

Have your say and help shape the response to Government by completing the survey at www.future-east.co.uk

